

A Remembrance of Daniel Glen Price

August 5, 1949—July 5, 2009

Daniel Glen Price was born on August 5, 1949 in Los Angeles, California. Dan was raised in Coronado, California by his father S. Fredrick Price, DDS, and his mother Elaine with his brother Bill and sister Tillie.

At Coronado High School, Dan was a member of the International Club, Vaqueros, the Stage Crew, Medical Explorers, the Varsity Tennis Team, the Lettermen's Club, Thespians, and acted in the Senior Play; he was also Band and Cavaliers Student Director.

Dan had a successful career in the insurance claims field but also found time to travel and pursue his outdoor passions of hunting and fishing.

On July 5, 2009, Dan passed away, after a long struggle, due to complications of Parkinson's disease. At the time of his death, Dan was survived by his mother, brother, and sister and their families.
