

A Remembrance of Danielle Maria Snure

1949—2012

Danielle attended a summer program at UC Davis the summer after her junior year at CHS. This shaped her future, as she majored in a related subject, and went on to work in medical research and development. She worked in the San Diego area most of her career. She took custody of and then adopted a boy and a girl from an acquaintance.

Sources: Her friends.